MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

SUBJECT: Addendum to Memorandum of 27 September 1949 re Delays in Coordination and Lack of Cooperation (CIA and the IAC Agencies)

AVOIDANCE OF PUBLICITY AND SECURITY OF INFORMATION

1. Publicity was first discussed at IAC meeting 3 December 1948. Executive Secretary of the NSC and others, consulted subsequently, thought it should be controlled at source rather than a new NSCID issued.
2. NSC 50 of 1 July 1949, however, recommended in Section 7 an NSCID on both subjects, so a draft was sent to IAC Standing Committee on 14 July 1949.
3. Various meetings and discussions, at IAC level and below, were held in an endeavor to meet the NSC's 30-day deadline. Split into two proposals. Handcarried for urgency. Final version of proposal on Security of Information sent to Executive Secretary, NSC, August 9th and circulated by him August 10th.
4. Disagreement (Navy and FBI) on Avoidance of Publicity entailed reference to Secretary of Defense and more discussions and meetings. IAC meeting of August 15th drafted final proposal sent to Executive Secretary, NSC, on August 16th and circulated to NSC by him.
5. September 16th, State wrote to Executive Secretary, NSC, that it wished to add to both proposals.
6. September 29th, no further news on either proposal.
